OCTOBER 2006

of New York City

The Tap Room Takes Off!

For a fast, fresh lunch where you can catch up with classmates, dine in the Tap Room from 12:00 noon to 2:30 pm on weekdays. Whether you are meeting friends or colleagues, the Tap offers a rotating buffet with live action stations and an a la carte menu. For the fastest lunch in Midtown, try fajitas on Mondays, sushi on Tuesdays, prime rib on Wednesdays, fresh pasta on Thursdays, and the seafood extravaganza on Fridays. Look for new action stations on the buffet in the fall!

The a la carte menu features healthy alternatives, such as Pacific Tuna Salad, Grilled Shrimp Santa Fe Salad, and Grilled Salmon Salad. For a heartier choice, have a Bulldog Burger or Pressed Cuban Sandwich. Reunite with your classmates at monthly luncheons dedicated to your graduation year. For example, the Class of '67 meets on the second Wednesday of each month. If you are interested in attending your class lunch or starting a group for your class year, please call 212-716-2111.

Robert P. Bremner '62 on Chairman of the Fed

Monday, October 23, 6:00 pm

Robert P. Bremner travels from Washington, D.C. to share his latest biography, Chairman of the Fed, published by Yale University Press. It chronicles William McChesney Martin, Jr. (1906-1998), the first paid president of the New York Stock Exchange and the chairman of the Federal Reserve System under Presidents Truman to Nixon. The book tells Martin's remarkable life story and explains his lasting impact on the NYSE and the Fed, both troubled institutions that Martin transformed.

It provides an inside look into the economic deliberations of five presidential administrations and describes Martin's battles to bring about ethical and intelligent regulation of U.S. financial markets. His experiences shed light not only on the evolution of the American financial system but also on critical issues confronting the system today. Mr. Bremner began his career with the World Bank in Washington, D.C. and has been an investment banker and management consultant. He is a former small business owner and currently serves as a public trustee for a large mutual fund management company. Join Mr. Bremner in the Library for cocktails at 6:00 pm and for his talk at 6:30 pm. He will discuss Martin's groundbreaking career and his leadership in trying times.

John Lahr '63 on "Comedy & Revenge"

Thursday, October 5, 6:00 pm

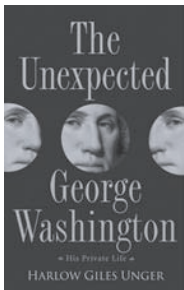

John Lahr presents an interpretation of comedy and revenge, illuminating figures like Buster Keaton, Charlie Chaplin, Groucho Marx, Joe Orton, Woody Allen, and Roseanne Barr. As the senior drama critic of The New Yorker, Mr. Lahr has written about theatre and popular culture since 1992. Among his eighteen books are Notes on a Cowardly Lion: The Biography of Bert Lahr and Prick Up Your Ears: The Biography of Joe Orton, which was made into a film. He has twice won the George Jean Nathan Award for Dramatic Criticism and received a Tony Award for co-writing Elaine Stritch at Liberty. Join Mr. Lahr for an entertaining take on the greats of comedy at 6:30 pm in the Library. Cocktails will be served at 6:00 pm.

Harlow Unger '53

Tuesday, October 10, 6:00 pm

Join fellow Club member Harlow Giles Unger to discuss his latest book, The Unexpected George

Washington: His Private Life.

Behind the iconic "Father of our Country" was a man who was human to the core: laughing, loving, and living life to the fullest. An utterly extraordinary man, Washington was a real-life action hero whose successes in war, politics, and diplomacy were so spectacular that few historians have attempted to reveal the human being behind the heroic figure. Using original letters, diaries, and other documents to reveal his private life, this unique biography provides dramatic new insights on George Washington's public life. Mount Vernon will begin a nationwide "Washington" campaign to celebrate both the 225th anniversary of his victory at Yorktown on October 19th and the 275th anniversary of Washington's birthday on February 22, 2007. An award-winning historian and biographer of Lafayette, John Hancock, and Noah Webster, Mr. Unger will share his research on this seminal figure in American history. The cocktail reception begins at 6:00 pm and the lecture starts at 6:30 pm in the Library.

Starting Anew at any Age

Wednesday, October 11, 6:30 pm

For anyone starting over—whether from death, disease, or divorce — meet for cocktails to share your stories and learn from fellow members. Club member Maxine Sklover, playwright and author of A Year in the Life of a Widow, will discuss writing as a healing process and her personal experiences as a survivor. Complimentary copies of the book will be offered to anyone attending the gathering. Find the joy in your life as you start over, and become stronger as a result. Meet in the Main Lounge at 6:30 pm, where a designated area will be set aside for the group.

Architecture Series: Byron Bell

Wednesday, October 11, 6:00 pm

"Restoration vs. Renovation"

Architecturally, can a social club be designed successfully? Byron Bell, FAIA, will illustrate how the architect must act as communicator and arbitrator, since many clients do not want change at all. His projects include the renovation and restoration of Greenfield

Concert Hall at The Manhattan School of Music; the redesign of the Exhibition Hall at the Grolier Club;

the renovation, restoration, and additions to the Century Association; new building, additions, and restorations to the Council on Foreign Relations; and the restoration of Columbia University's Rare Book and Manuscript Library. Mr. Bell received his B.A. from Princeton in 1957, followed by a Masters of Architecture from Columbia in 1962. He is the Principal of Byron Bell Architects and Planners. He has won numerous awards in the field, including the William Kinne Fellow Memorial Fellowship in 1963. Join Mr. Bell in the Library over cocktails at 6:00 pm, followed by his architectural musings at 6:30 pm.

Cellular Phone Policy—Please note that the use of mobile phones is not permitted in any public member spaces, including the locker rooms, gym, and dining rooms.

Telephone booths, enclosed stairwells, and the Lobby are permissible areas for quiet conversations. We ask that members and their guests set phones on silent/vibrate upon entering the Club to maintain a more congenial place for all.

Murray's Cheese Tasting

Thursday, October 12, 6:30 pm

Say cheese! Liz Thorpe '00, co-author of the Murray's Cheese Handbook and Director of Wholesale at Murray's Cheese, will lead a tasting of the major styles of cheese, focusing on her seasonal favorites. Ms. Thorpe will share everything you always wanted to know about cheese but were afraid to ask. The reception begins at 6:30 pm in the Tap Room, followed by a sit-down tasting at 7:00 pm. A selection of wines and snacks will accompany the cheese tasting. The cost for this entertaining and educational seminar is $30 per person. Reservations are required by October 10 and will be subject to the cancellation fee.

Rubin Museum of Art

Friday, October 13, 6:30 pm

A cultural and educational institution dedicated to the art of the Himalayas, the Rubin Museum presents works to both scholars and viewers new to Himalayan art. On Friday evenings, the museum sponsors K2 Lounge, where viewers ascend to a new art experience by sipping cocktails, attending gallery tours, hearing live music, and screening films. The group will convene at 6:15 pm for check-in at the bottom of the spiral staircase in the museum's lobby. The private hour-long highlights tour will start at 6:30 pm.

Afterwards, feel free to enjoy any of the K2 Lounge activities on your own. Guest DJs from the Silk Road Ensemble will spin contemporary and global sounds until closing; a full bar is available; artists speak about the works on guided tours; and CABARETcinema shows where movies and martinis mix. The cost for the private tour is $15 per person; additional fees may apply for K2 activities of your choice. The Rubin Museum of Art is located at 150 West 17th Street at Seventh Avenue in Chelsea. Reservations are required by October 11 and will be subject to the cancellation fee.

Gaming in the Grill

Sunday, October 15,
2:00 pm – 6:00 pm

Bring your skills at bridge, backgammon, Scrabble, chess, and checkers to the Grill Room to meet fellow members looking for a game. If you would like to play bridge, please reserve in advance so multiples of four can be arranged. The Grill Room offers weekend dining from 2:00 pm to 8:00 pm if you get hungry. Please direct questions and interest by calling Carol Weeks at 212-251-0296 or by e-mailing Caroline Hutton at cdubh@optonline.net.

Visiting Chef Scott Conant

Tuesday, October 17, 6:00 pm

Scott Conant, Executive Chef/Owner of L'Impero and Alto restaurants in Midtown, joins members in the Roof Dining Room for an evening of refined Italian cuisine. While studying at the Culinary Institute of America, Chef Conant interned at San Domenico under Chef Paul Bartolotta, later becoming the sous chef. In 1995, Chef Cesare Casella tapped him as chef de cuisine at Pino Luongo's Il Toscanaccio, where he learned rustic Tuscan fare. Since the beginning of his culinary career, Chef Conant has shown a single-minded determination to understand the full spectrum of Italian cuisine. From his years of mastering alta cucina at San Domenico to his explorations of cucina rustica in the trattorias of the Italian countryside, he has sought to surround himself with a diversity of perspectives to better inform his personal style. His time in Italy reaffirmed his belief that cooking is all about honesty, integrity, and soul. As a result, Chef Conant's cooking incorporates classic Italian cuisine with his own sense of American ingenuity. Since launching L'Impero in Tudor City in the fall 2002, praise for Chef Conant's food has been effusive and unanimous. The New York Times awarded him an exuberant three-star review in December 2002, and Gourmet concluded that he "raises the roof on the Manhattan school of Italian cooking." Alto continues the trend with modern, sophisticated Northern Italian cuisine in a sleek dining room. Bill Boggs, Emmy award-winning television personality and host of the upcoming show "By the Glass" on the Television Food Network, will join Chef Conant for the live three-course dinner and demonstration. The cost is $85 per person, plus tax and gratuity, which includes a copy of Scott Conant's New Italian Cooking, to be signed by the chef. Reservations are required by October 13 and will be subject to the cancellation fee.

Event Cancellation Policy – The Club requires reservations for all events with fees. For these events for which reservations are required, members have up until 2 days before the day of the event to cancel their reservation without incurring a cancellation fee. Members calling to cancel after this 2 day deadline and members who do not show for the event will be charged 50% of their full reservation. (For example, if a member has a reservation to an event that will take place on January 22, cancellations must be made by 5:00 pm on January 19.) This cancellation policy does not apply to gratis events, such as lectures and monthly gatherings. All ticketed events (i.e. US Open, museum tours, and baseball game tickets) are final sale at the time the reservation is made. Cancellations or no-shows for any All-Ivy events held at other clubs are subject to full charge after the 2 day deadline. Any exceptions to this cancellation policy will be noted in the event description in the Newsletter.

"A Taste of Luxury"

Wednesday, October 18, 7:00 pm

Come to the Saybrook Room for a "taste of luxury" at this exclusive Hennessy Cognac tasting paired with MarieBelle Chocolates. We will taste the entire range of Hennessy Cognac including the most remarkable blends, some of which are aged for 200 years! Brand Ambassador Amaury Vinclet will introduce members to the history of cognac, the production, and what makes Hennessy unique in the cognac field. The tasting will include: Hennessy V.S (Very Special), Privilege V.S.O.P. (Very Superior Old Pale), X.O (eXtra Old), Paradis Extra, and Richard Hennessy, the latter of which is made up of more than 100 aged spirits. Members will taste fine chocolate from MarieBelle to complement the cognacs. The reception begins at 7:00 pm, followed by the sit-down tasting at 7:30 pm. The cost is $30 per person. Reservations are required by October 16 and will be subject to the cancellation fee.

Book Club

Wednesday, October 18, 6:30 pm

A compelling story of an Osaka family that embraces tradition, Jun'ichiro Tanizaki's Makioka Sisters (1957) was the first major Japanese work of the post-World War II period. Meet in the Branford Suite for refreshments at 6:00 pm followed by the group discussion. Afterwards, continue to chat in the Grill Room over dinner.

Senior Members' Get-together

Thursday, October 19, 5:30 pm

Reconnect with friends from the Classes of the 1960s and earlier in the Main Lounge for cocktails, conversation, and live piano music. All are welcome to attend.

Château Lafite Wine Dinner

Thursday, October 19, 6:00 pm

Explore the links between Bordeaux and the new world. Discover the spirit of Château Lafite encapsulated in unique grapes. Meet Martin Sinkoff, recognized expert on the wines of Bordeaux, and learn about the Rothschild family—their history and their excellent wine. Purchased by the Rothschild family in 1868, Château Lafite was then and remains one of the greatest wine estates in the world. The family has extended its legacy with investments in France, Portugal, Chile, and Argentina, and we will taste wines from the great estates of Domaines Rothschild. Mr. Sinkoff has worked closely with the Rothschild estates over the past half decade through their U.S. importer and partner, Pasternak Wine Imports. In addition to his work in the wine trade, Mr. Sinkoff is a recognized wine educator and writer. Join him in the Roof Dining Room for a tasting menu paired with the wines of Domaines Rothschild. The cost is $75 per person, which includes the wine pairings, plus tax and gratuity. Members will share larger tables, so singles are encouraged to attend. Reservations are required by October 17 and will be subject to the cancellation fee.

German Table

Thursday, October 19, 6:00 pm

Tilman Hanckel, the German Consulate's new Cultural Head in New York, will be the guest of the German Conversation group during the Yale Club's Oktoberfest Week in the Grill Room. Over German beer and dinner, Mr. Hanckel will lead a discussion on the relationship between Europe and America. Please contact David Lefkovits '81 at dlefkovits@usa.net or 201-532-1349 to reserve your place.

Poetry Night

Friday, October 20, 6:00 pm

Join us in the Music Room for our informal monthly gatherings. No poetic license required! Read your own lines, or just listen and enjoy. Please bring copies of your poetry to share with others. Complimentary refreshments will be served at 6:00 pm and the meeting will begin at 6:30 pm.

Young Members' It's My Park! Day

Saturday, October 21, 9:00 am – 12:00 noon, rain or shine

Gather some good karma by helping clean a neighborhood park! Join fellow young members for a morning of fresh air and outdoor fun at Cooper Triangle Park. Pitch in to get the park ready for fall by pruning and planting bright flowers and bulbs. We will be there between 9:00 am and 12:00 noon with coffee and donuts. Feel free to drop by at any time and to bring friends. Cooper Triangle Park is located at Third Avenue and Seventh Street, one block from the 6 train at Astor Place. Support the Club's ongoing commitment to volunteer service by beautifying city parks. To learn more about It's My Park! Day, visit www.itsmypark.org.

Young Members' Antique Map and Print Tour with Graham Arader '73

Saturday, October 21, 3:00 pm

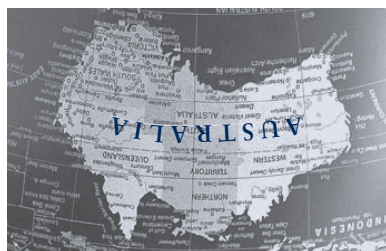

Join us on a private tour of antique maps and works on paper at the W. Graham Arader III Gallery of New York, and learn about everything from celestial maps to natural history engravings from one of the country's top print dealers. Graham Arader will lead a small group of members on a tour of his collection's highlights at one of his galleries. A ranked squash player while at Yale, he became interested in antiquarian maps as a student. Mr. Arader will speak about his favorite works, as well as the methods of conservation necessary to preserve works on paper. The tour is sponsored by the Young Members Committee, but all ages are welcome to join. The group will convene at 2:45 pm in the gallery, located at 1016 Madison Avenue, between 78th and 79th Streets. Although this tour is gratis for members, reservations are required by October 19. Space is limited, so please reserve early.

"Down Under Upside Down" Wine Tasting

Tuesday, October 24, 6:30 pm

Flip your perspective on the land down under with this surprising wine tasting. Characteristics you would normally expect from Aussie wines are turned upside down by wines from Yering Station and Mount Langi Ghiran. You'd expect jammy, bold fruit flavors from Shiraz—you'll get elegant, lean, and structured Shiraz. You'd expect young wines—you'll get wine from a winery over 100 years old. You'd expect rugged—you'll get refined. Kate Lovell, the North American Winery Liaison, will lead members through this tasting to prove that what you've come to expect from Australia may be a little different. Both wineries are owned by the Rathbone family, although each winery has a separate and unique style. The reception begins at 6:30 pm in the Tap Room, followed by the formal, sit-down tasting at 7:00 pm. The cost is $25 per person. Reservations are required by October 20 and will be subject to the cancellation fee.

THEATRE SERIES:

Enjoy dinner in the Roof Dining Room, then head to the theater for a fabulous show. The cost for this package (which includes meal and ticket) is $60 per person unless otherwise indicated. Please note that beverages and transportation are additional. Cancellations made less than three days before the show will be subject to the cancellation fee. No-shows will be charged full price.

Arms and the Man

Friday, October 6, 6:00 pm

The deliriously romantic Raina thrills to the sights, sounds, and grandeur of war. Then one night, a battle-stained soldier drops into her bedroom, holds her at gunpoint, and asks for a piece of chocolate. George Bernard Shaw's delicious send-up of the romantic view of war has enjoyed continuous popularity since its premiere in 1894. Join us for dinner (chocolate included!) in the Roof Dining Room, followed by this amusing and touching classic at the Pearl Theatre.

School for Wives

Friday, November 10, 6:00 pm

Written just months after the playwright married a girl twenty years his junior, School for Wives (1662) reveals an artist and a man who has learned, perhaps the hard way, that youth and innocence do not guarantee marital bliss. Join us for dinner in the Roof Dining Room, followed by Moliere's classic French comedy at the Pearl Theatre in the East Village.

Young Members' Reading Society

Wednesday, October 25, 8:00 pm – 10:00 pm

Join young members for the monthly gathering of the reading society in the Music Room. This month's selection is Nikolai Gogol's The Overcoat and Other Short Stories. Unlike most Russian literature in translation, Gogol's prose is intentionally humorous. Discuss these four short stories and the author's witty irony over complimentary wine and cookies. For more information or to confirm your participation, please contact Stephanie Carendi at vcarendi@gmail.com. Stay tuned for November's selection: Ernest Hemingway's The Old Man and the Sea.

Explore New York:

"From Carriage House to Country Escape: The Mount Vernon Hotel Museum & Garden"

Friday, October 27, 2:00 pm

Why would someone convert a carriage house into a country resort for New Yorkers in the early 1800s? Why wasn't this building torn down to accommodate an encroaching city? This tour provides the answers to these and many other questions concerning the various lives and uses of the Mount Vernon Hotel Museum & Garden. Guides will reveal how this unique 18th-century building survives in a growing urban environment. The tour will conclude with tea and scones in the Tavern Room. The cost is $25 per person. The group will convene at 1:45 pm for check-in; the tour begins promptly at 2:00 pm. The museum is located at 421 East 61st Street between First and York Avenues. Reservations are required by October 25 and will be subject to the cancellation fee.

Children's Halloween Party

Thursday, October 26, 5:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Calling all small ghosts and goblins! It's time for the annual party in the Tap Room. We will have pumpkin painting, cookie decorating, face painting, close-up magic, and more. Enjoy a child-friendly buffet featuring Monster Mashed Potatoes,

Witches' (Chicken) Fingers, and Graveyard Dirt. The cost for this event is $24.95 for adults and $12.95 for children under the age of 10, plus tax and gratuity. Reservations are required by October 24 and will be subject to the cancellation fee. Early reservations are recommended because this event sells out every year. We are not able to accommodate parties larger than 10 people per member due to space. We encourage children (and adults) to come in costume, but parents should note that the costumes should not be too scary as there are young children present.

Gotham Ghost Tour

Saturday, October 28, 11:30 am

Get in the mood for Halloween with a historic, macabre walking tour of Greenwich Village. Join ghosts and ghouls of all ages to see the spooky cemetery at St. Marks; the hanging elm, a 19th century execution site; the home of Edgar Allan Poe; and the burial ground at Washington Square, just to name a few. And you thought only subways ran beneath the city streets! The cost is $20 per person. Meeting point to be announced upon reservation. The group will convene at 11:15 am for check-in.

Reservations are required by October 26 and will be subject to the cancellation fee.

All-Ivy Halloween Ball @ Princeton

Saturday, October 28, 9:00 pm-1:00 am

Put a spell on someone special at the 20th Annual All-Ivy Halloween Ball! Dress to impress in black tie or in costume. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Show off your moves while dancing to a live band. The cost of this event is $60 per person and includes hors d'oeuvres, beer, wine, and soda. A cash bar will be available for cocktails and champagne. Advance reservations are required by October 23 and no walk-ins will be admitted. No cash will be accepted at the door. Cancellations received after October 25 will be charged in full.

November Preview: Annie Leibovitz @ BMA

Thursday, November 2, 3:00 pm

Get out of Midtown to discover the Brooklyn Museum of Art's latest exhibition, "Annie Leibovitz: A Photographer's Life, 1990-2005." An exhibition of more than 200 photographs from one of the most celebrated photographers of our time, the show debuts at the Brooklyn Museum prior to an international tour. Annie Leibovitz has been making witty, powerful images documenting American popular culture since the early 1970s, when her work began appearing in Rolling Stone. She became the magazine's chief photographer in 1973, and later worked for both Vanity Fair and Vogue, where she created a legendary body of work. In addition to her magazine work, Ms. Leibovitz has created influential advertising campaigns for American Express, Gap, Givenchy, The Sopranos, and the Milk Board. She was named a Living Legend by the Library of Congress in 2000 and one of the thirty-five Innovators of Our Time by Smithsonian magazine in 2005. The cost for this guided tour is $15 per person. The museum is located at 200 Eastern Parkway in Brooklyn, easily accessible on the 2 or 3 subway line at the Eastern Parkway/Brooklyn Museum stop. Please meet in the museum's lobby for check-in at 2:45 pm. Reservations are required by October 31 and will be subject to the cancellation fee.

Business Breakfast with Bill Robbins

Wednesday, November 8, 7:30 am

Looking for useful, real-world knowledge about seed-stage investing and venture development? Join William L. Robbins (Dartmouth '83) to demystify the start-up process for first-timers and provide more experienced professionals with fresh insights. His recent book, Seed-Stage Venture Investing: The Ins and Outs for Entrepreneurs, Start-ups, and Investors on Successfully Starting a New Business, explains these guidelines with true-to-life anecdotes and irrepressible wit. Mr. Robbins is managing director of Convergent Ventures and has founded more than a half-dozen new ventures. After attending Columbia's Business School, he began in the pharmaceutical industry and now focuses on biotechnology and life science start-ups. The group will meet over breakfast at 7:30 am in the Roof Dining Room with an a la carte menu. Upon reserving, please note if you would like to purchase a copy of the book.

Prof. Steven B. Smith

Thursday, November 9, 6:00 pm

“Was Leo Strauss a Neo-Conservative?”

Interest in Leo Strauss is greater now than at any time since his death, mostly because of the purported link between his thought and the political movement known as neoconservatism. Professor Steven B. Smith presents his latest book, Reading Leo Strauss, which looks at the controversial political philosopher Leo Strauss and examines his views on politics, philosophy, and religion. He surprisingly depicts

Strauss not as the high priest of neoconservatism but as a friend of liberal democracy—perhaps the best defender democracy has ever had. Moreover, he shows that Strauss’s defense of liberal democracy was closely connected to his skepticism of both the extreme Left and extreme Right. Steven B. Smith is the Alfred Cowles Professor of Political Science at Yale and has taught at the university since 1984. He has been the Master of Branford College for the past ten years. Debate the question at hand in the Library over cocktails at 6:00 pm, followed by Professor Smith’s talk at 6:30 pm.

Yale University Art Gallery Treasures Unveiled

Monday, November 13, 6:00 pm

The Yale University Art Gallery’s renovated Louis Kahn building is set to open to the public in early December 2006. This renovation not only returns the building to the architect’s vision but dedicates significantly more space to the display of art. Two of these collections were dramatically changed by the recent acquisition of the Charles B. Benenson ’33 Collection as well as other singular objects. While you will look forward to seeing old favorites upon your return to the museum, the displays of African and modern and contemporary art will hold many new discoveries and delights for visitors. Frederick John Lamp ’82 Ph.D., the France and Benjamin Benenson Foundation Curator of African Art, and Jennifer Gross, the Seymour H. Knox Jr., Curator of Modern and Contemporary Art, will share the changes in their departments and collections in recent years and relate some of the challenges of selecting works and installing them in the Kahn building. Join the curators at 6:00 pm for cocktails and for their talk at 6:30 pm in the Library.

ALL-IVY EVENTS: Interclub Backgammon Tournament

Tuesday, October 10, 6:00 pm

Join fellow backgammon players from many of New York’s premier private clubs for an evening of match play between opponents of equivalent backgammon skill and instruction for novices. We’ll break at 7:30 pm for a delicious buffet dinner and resume play after dinner until 9:30 pm. The cost is $50 per person (which includes dinner), plus tax and gratuity. Drinks will be on a sign basis. The University Club is located at 1 West 54th Street and Fifth Avenue. Reservations are required in advance through the Yale Club. Please include your level of play.

All-Ivy Networking Series: Freelancers and Entrepreneurs @ Princeton

*Monday, October 16,
6:00 pm – 8:00 pm*

The All-Ivy Professional Networking Series continues! Don’t miss this opportunity to make professional connections with fellow club members in a relaxed environment. Craving more independence and control, many professionals have opted to leave the traditional workplace behind for careers as freelancers and entrepreneurs. Different networking skills are required for those who decide to be their own boss. Networking expert Win Sheffield will share valuable networking tips and strategies. The cost for this event is $15 per person, plus tax and gratuity, which includes light hors d’oeuvres and non-alcoholic beverages. Reservations are required through the Yale Club by October 12 and will be subject to the cancellation fee. No walk-ins will be accepted.

DKE Casino Night

Friday, October 20, 6:00 pm

Come celebrate the fall season in the Grand Ballroom. Try your luck at our casino tables and enjoy a spicy Cajun menu. Cocktails begin at 6:00 pm followed by dinner at 7:00 pm. The cost is $100 per couple and $125 per couple for non-members. Please RSVP to Rose-Mary Rudden at 212-716-2144.

Columbus Day Schedule

We will have normal hours of operation on Columbus Day.

Friday Night Frolic

Friday, October 13, 6:00 pm

"Kumm Ess, Alles Schmeckt!"

"Come eat, everything tastes good!"

The food of the Pennsylvania Dutch will be showcased in the Roof Dining Room for a special Friday Night Buffet. Try Amish Preaching Soup, Stewed Chicken in Bird's Eye Gravy, and Duck with Apple Glaze and Brussel Sprouts. Don't miss the Seven Sweets and Seven Sours!

Make sure to leave room for Flannel Cakes, Apple Fritters, and Shoofly Pie for dessert. The buffet is $29.95 per person, plus tax and gratuity. Reservations are recommended in advance.

Oktoberfest

Week of October 16 – 22

Eat, drink, and be merry during Oktoberfest at the Yale Club!

All of the dining rooms will feature authentic German specials during the week, from Bratwurst with Sauerkraut in Grain Mustard Sauce on the Tap buffet to hearty Sauerbraten in Gingersnap Sauce with Spaetzle in the Grill Room. The Roof Dining Room's Friday Night Buffet will focus on refined classics like Chicken Braised in Gewürztraminer. Try domestic Brooklyn Oktoberfest beer and German Paulaner Oktoberfest beer in the Main Bar on tap throughout the month. German snacks will be available in the Main Lounge and Bar for happy hour as well.

Thanksgiving Reservations

Treat your family and friends to the Club's annual Thanksgiving Day Brunch, with seatings from 11:30 am to 5:00 pm. The cost for the extravagant buffet is $48.95 for adults and $19.95 for children (ages five to twelve), plus tax and gratuity. There is no charge for children under the age of five. All beverages are additional. Parties of six or more will be seated in the Grand Ballroom, and all other parties will be seated in the Roof Dining Room. Please reserve early to ensure choice seating. Call 212-716-2133 or email dining@yaleclubnyc.org to reserve. To reserve private dining space for parties of 10-100, please call 212-716-2122.

Yale Club Scholarship Drive

The Club's annual Scholarship Fund drive kicks off this month. Fifteen members of the incoming freshman class have been selected to join 40 upperclassmen as Yale Club of New York City Scholars.

Information about the Class of 2010 and instructions for making tax-deductible contributions will be mailed out in early October. If you have any questions, please call Laura Hurley at 212-716-2113.

Yale Football Half-time Show Sponsorship

We are proud to announce that the Yale Club of New York City will be sponsoring the half-time show during this season's broadcast of Bulldog football. Tune into WELI 960 AM or listen online at www.weli.com. Yale Coaching legend Carm Cozza and Emmy award-winner Ron Vaccaro '04 team up to bring you the live action from the Yale Bowl and beyond.

Planning a Holiday Party?

Seasons greetings from the Yale Club! The holidays are right around the corner, so it's the perfect time to plan this year's corporate holiday party. Beat the holiday rush to book the best date for your event. We offer premium open bars, butler-passed hors d'oeuvres, and a bevy of delectable stations, including New York Steakhouse, Salmon en Croute, Tuscan Table, Risotto and Scampi Station, Fondue and Soft-ripened Cheeses, South Asian Satay Station, plus a choice of dessert stations. Ample holiday décor, from poinsettias and wreaths to festive linens, completes the setting. Members will receive a complimentary prix-fixe dinner for two in the Roof Dining Room for booking any party of 50 people or more. Call 212-716-2122 to speak to an events planner for details and availability.

Events Hotline

The Club's Hotline, featuring information on Club events and dining, is updated weekly. Please call 212-716-2152.

Reciprocal Clubs

Enjoy the amenities of being a Club member whenever you travel.

PLANNING YOUR TRIP

Our extensive Reciprocal Club program can provide guestroom accommodations and dining facilities in many cities around the world. Arranging a visit to a reciprocal club is easy. Simply request a Letter of Introduction from the Member Services Office at least one week in advance to be sent to the appropriate club.

E-mail: info@yaleclubnyc.org
Phone: 212-716-2131

Members must book rooms and other accommodations with the reciprocal club on their own. Accounts must be settled by credit card prior to departure. Club facilities and number of visits allowed differ from club to club.

*No overnight accommodations

Yale-Harvard Game Broadcast

Saturday, November 18, 11:30 am

Can't make it to Cambridge for The Game? The Club brings The Game to you with a live broadcast. Join fellow members for a tailgate luncheon buffet in the Tap Room or enjoy a Yale Lager in the Grill Room, where only beverages will be served. Game time is 12:30 pm, but come early for a prime spot on the sidelines. The cost of the Tap buffet lunch is $27.50, plus tax and gratuity. All beverages are additional in both areas and programs will be available for purchase. Reservations are required by November 16 and will be subject to the cancellation policy.
